COMING NEXT VOLUME...

Only one wrestler will walk away from the Manufacturer's edge match with all limbs intact—and whoever wins, it's bad news for Kid Mondo! But with the brutal Muscle League's no-mercy policy, as anyone seems to have forgotten, crucial questions must also always be asked: Who's supposed to be fighting, and where did the GMP disappear to after all? The mysterious Kevin Mark produces a new Muscle League champion to answer just these questions—and even if he's a nice cat of super-powered warriors!

ULTIMATE MUSCLE

THE CHAMPION LEAGUE

I was supposed to be a friendly challenge. It was supposed to be a photo op. It was supposed to be fun. But when Generation Ex, the Muscle League's newest team of superpowered warriors, challenged Red Muscle and his friends for the right to protect the Earth from evil, things quickly got personal. Real personal.

Now Red Muscle is the last member of his team still fighting, and three Generation Ex members stand between him and victory. There's Jagermeister, the guy with the sword who powers. And the brutal Scudman, whose real name...and real agenda...remain shrouded in mystery. If the Red can defeat the terrible two, he'll become the galaxy's reigning champion of Good. If not, he'll be handed a one-way ticket off the planet Earth. All Generation Ex lets him have the ring about.
